

TODAY and the LASTIME we met

Our speaker today is Richard Daubeney from Crimestoppers, which is an independent charity working to prevent crime.

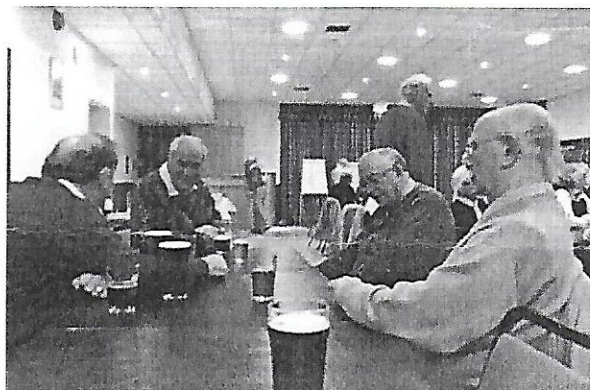

Last month we were both informed and entertained by Jenny Clark from Woof-Ability, a charity, which trains dogs to help disabled people. Jenny Clark who is disabled, brought along an experienced dog to demonstrate what they can be trained to do and a puppy. I have included a photo from Woof-Ability's website and if you want to see and learn more, use the following address
